“ *From Evie Sampson,
I did not have the blessing of meeting Tia Sonia but her kindness and warm heart towards others traveled far. She welcomed my daughter into her family and I will treasure and remember all that she did. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. May you all find love and peace amongst the fond memories of Tia Sonia.

“ Truly a sweet sweet lady, she was a relative of my wife's (Ana Zoar) family, we visited New Orleans several times and stayed with Her, and she was so hospitable, and we felt so comfortable there with her. I truly felt like part of her family. She would pick up her conversation with my wife as if she was only gone for one day. That's really what family is about. I'm going to miss you Sonia. 🥺

“ I remember meeting Sonia at Alexis and Sal’s wedding. I was taken aback by how beautiful Sonia was! As I heard stories over the years about her generosity and giving nature, it was evident that she was beautiful on the inside as well- Beautiful through and through. May Gods presence give you peace.
Much Love,

Our Sonia our amazing neighbor and friend. Such a pleasant, kind, caring and giving human making this planet so much better and sweeter with her presence in it! Sonia has been our neighbor for 31 years and we couldn’t have had a better one for that length of time - her smile the twinkle in her eyes and the sincerity of her being, truly a blessing. She loved well and loved many especially her family. She was a blessing to my daughter always blessing her with Hello Kitty gifts on her birthday. She shared groceries and supported us in anyway she was able to bringing us to the airport and calling on us to help her which was always a pleasure. She is in our hearts and memories and I find it so difficult to think of her earthly presence not being with us but I know that she lives in heaven and we will see her again and may we all live as well as she did and be the neighbor and friend as she was not to mention the family member that I know she was to all of you. Hugs and Shalom AnG

Sadly we didn't get to meet Sonia. She passed before our planned arrival in mid August. We learned so much about her big heart, kindness and love of family through our granddaughter Stephie Devilla. We're sending all our love and hugs to the entire family in this time of sorrow. Beautiful memories are yours to keep. Love from Bill & Angela Sampson Australia. 🌸🌸
