“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, it is at times difficult to receive the comfort we search for. In times like these I know I can find comfort in God's word. In John 5:28,29 He tells us " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2 Cor 1:3).

“ I met Stephen when I was 17 yrs old, when I met the love of my life, his brother Jon Paul. 2 very different brothers but loving and loyal to each other always. Stephen and I "clicked" in one particular thing... His love of music was equal to mine! We may not have loved the same kind but our passion for it was the same; we'd do anything for our music! I have so many fond memories of Stephen when I listen to music...especially the rock music he so loved! When Stephen played his music I believe he was his happiest most fulfilled self. I think it gave him peace, a sense of purpose and a positive way to express himself. I can very much relate! May you rest in peace and ROCK ON forever...my music man...my "MOOGIE" man...I will be remember you always with a song in my heart!!!???
