I'm so very sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of Uncle Sterling. I wish we were not so far away. Thinking of you and keeping you in my prayers. Love Christy*

“ I didn't expect the trumpets to play for you so soon, but here we are. You were called home and I understand- you are needed. What that exact reason is for, I don't know, but I suspect it's for the better. Our family is left of nothing but great memories of Chirstmas' past, restaurant outings and unforgettable vacations to Destin. You were gem. A person who would give the shirt off your back to my sister and I, and a person we probably could've called 'dad' but never have. You weren't just a great person, but a loving and gentle soul as well. I hope you find peace. I hope you watch over our family and give us strength every day, and I hope you catch a 'big one' up there. We'll miss you. Love and light.

Your Nephew, Alex

P.S. We should've bought that condo.
