“ I met Sue at St. John Church and she became a member of Ladies Alter Society and remained as active as she could even during times of her illness. She was a beautiful lady with a precious heart and I am a better person for having known her. I thank God he allowed me to know this angel on earth. My heart goes out to the family.

“ I am very sorry for this great loss to your family. I knew Sue or "Susie" because when we were children she was a friend whose house I would have the pleasure of visiting on Saturday nights. I would go with my aunt, uncle and cousin Judy Bethea, their daughter. Sue went to my grammar school and my high school finishing 2 years prior to me. I had not seen her for about 40 years, then she moved here to Prairieville where I now live since Katrina. She joined the Ladies' Altar Society here at St. John of which I am a member. She was always a very friendly, sweet and sincere person. May she Rest In Peace. Mary Palazzolo Bordelon
