“ My dear friend, I don't know where to begin, All I can hear is my head is hey lil mamma, give me a hug. That beautiful smile that could light up the darkest night. You were taken away from us too soon, but I imagine God needed you more. My heart goes out to your family but most of all your baby boy Lil Danny. I can remember us working together at World Ship, me, you and ,melissa. I remember us taking our smoke breaks and you always brought two cigs to smoke. I remember when I first met you and I thought dang I have never seen anyone type that fast and you would always laugh when I said that. You are going to be missed by so many people who loved and cared for you. I am going to miss you Lil Mamma. I still can't believe you are gone. I love you and I will pray for your family. Love your old friend Shawn

“ My beautiful niece. It is so hard to sit here and think about the fact that you have gone to heaven so soon. I will miss your beautiful smile, eyes, personality and of course your favorite saying (toot toot). I feel so blessed to have had you in my life and enjoyed every moment that we have had together since I came in the family and you were only 5 years old. Everyone gets so involved with their own lives and don't realize how little time we have on this earth to spend with our family and friends., until someone close to our hearts is taking away from us. Uncle Junebug and I talked today about you calling every year and placing your special order in for your Melinessa. He said that he will have a special bowl just for you every year and keep up yours and his tradition. You will always be in our hearts forever. Love you and we will miss you.

“ Tammy,

My heart is broken...over losing such a dear friend!!! When I heard the news, I was in total shock! I was lost and confused, wondering how God could call you home so soon! Such a beautiful young women, with so much life left to live! Knowing so many people loved you and still needed you here, but as I sat crying and praying, I realized although you would be missed dearly, God had bigger plans and there is no doubt the reason he chose you was because his bigger plans required the "PERFECT ANGEL"!!! Girlfriend you and I were really close friends I would even say best friends for many, many yrs....out of all those yrs, our friendship was tested only once a couple of yrs ago but as true friends would, we got through it, we passed that test with flying colors!! I do regret that because of our crazy and hectic lives, we didnt hang out as much as we use to, the calls and text messages were not several times a day, everyday like they use to be....but I`m totally grateful that we remained true friends!!! I knew we were true friends because it didnt matter if we hadn't seen each other in weeks or just the day before, that whenever we seen each other or talked, we always picked up right where we left off...whether it was lending an ear for major bending or a shoulder to cry on! It didnt matter if it was happy times or sad tears because of what was going on in both our lives! It didnt matter if we were reminiscing about days past, chatting about our futures or if we both were shopping at Wal-Mart....lol you always seemed to spot me first and outta nowhere I would hear from across the store "Doot, Doot, GIRLFRIEND!" Instantly a smile would come over my face because I knew it was you....I would turn around to see that million dollar smile of yours and hear you say "come give me a hug, lil mamma!" Tammy, I`m going to miss you so much, my dear sweet friend!! I`m going to miss the way you lit up a room as you came in, that wild and crazy personality of yours, the way you snorted when you laughed, the way you always made me feel.....this is really so hard, I could go on and on about all the things that I`m going to miss about you! Although you are gone my friend, I will always love you and you will never be more then a thought away....I will treasure all the great times we shared, good times, laughs and all the secrets that best friends share! I am a better person for having you as a friend for so many yrs!!! RIP...this is not good bye, more like cya later Girlfriend, hugs, kisses and lots of love til we meet again.....

“ Tammy, where do I start, so many wonderful memories with you,,,LIL MAMA.....Loved when we shared in helping Danny and Keith coach all those sports at Wentwood for our lil baby boy's. You were filled with LOVE AND HAPPINESS no matter what the circumstances were in your life. I remember being so happy when you moved back to your house after Katrina.

Wish you didn't have to leave us so soon, you will always be in my heart and I will do anything and everything in my power to make sure your Boggie Man is taken care of. Lil Danny was your world and everyone knew it. You spoke all the time about him, between all of your wonderful huge family and all kinds of friends, he will be ok and will live the life you want him to.

Love you dearly, Angie Crews

“ I do not even know what to say, I am in complete awe and just cannot stop crying.. There is a huge hole in my heart and void in my life. I will miss you dearly lil mamma, and will never forget you. You and your smile were always there to pick me up when I was down, but I know that you are in heaven watching over all of us and I will still be able to think of you and smile. The days and evenings that we all spent together over the years will keep your memory alive forever in my heart. Joe Joe will miss his buddy and will always smile when he thinks of you..... We love you lil mamma and will all meet up again one day!!!!

“ Tammy,

You have left us way too soon Little Mama. I have enjoyed our time working together so much. You more than kept things interesting around the office with that big personality of yours. And all of your choice phrases. I will always treasure our couple of days in Houston together and your crazy margarita ordering. You always made me laugh. I know all of us will miss you so deeply. I pray for your entire family and Glenn. And most of all for that sweet little boy who was your entire world-Little Danny. Never have I heard someone talk about their child like you- constantly the baby, the baby, the baby- I thought you had an infant when I first met you. Work will never be the same without you- you have left a huge void that no one will ever be able to fill. Coworkers really do become like a family we spend so much time together and losing you has devastated all of us. Many prayers and love to all of Tammy's family and friends.

“ The memory that i will keep in my heart for the rest of my life is when my big sister came to my rescue. I was going throught a divorce and was afraid that I would not be able to keep my kids. She dropped everything and came to live with me for a couple of weeks until I had childcare and all of my affairs in order. Not only did she help me take care of the kids, but she gave me the strength and faith I needed to continue taking care of them after she went back to living her own life. If it wasn't for you Tammy, I may not have my kids today. I can't even begin to thank you enough. I love you so much.
