I love you so much momma, my first passion! My first love. Sometimes I feel like I can see your eyes and hear your voice. Even if you're not physically with me, I know you are spiritually. I'll see you again on the other side.

“ When Tanya was born I was only eight years old. I felt like she was my child. Many years of raising her and standing by her side. From her first apartment. Her first child being born. Great memories of decorating her first apartment. She was such a wonderful mother she did everything she could within her means to give to her children. She was a fun loving mom. Life doesn't always give us a bowl of cherries. If you would've never known that with her. She took the worst situation and made it into the best. You are free as a bird. No more pain. Fly high!

Tayna and I met at age 12 while living in mid city. We became instant friends for life.
Tayna was a generous kind woman with an infectious laugh. Her looks and personality were second to none and she was loved by so many.
She is the kind of person you never forget truly unique and real. I honor you Tayna Marie for the love and beauty of your soul. I know you are in the arms of Jesus partying down with the Angel's. Fly high and be free my beautiful one.
