Thelma was like a sister to me and my sister. She was a person I looked up to cause she was never afraid to try something new, always getting involved in things she was passionate about and had no problem to get involved by helping others. She was someone that I really admired and I modeled after.

Thelma was there for my wedding, getting me ready to go down the isle and when my husband wasn't able to be there due to military separation, she went with me to maternity classes & was the one who was next to me when I was having my first daughter - Mimo.

Plus she knew how to COOK! She was able to re-teach me how to make some of my favorite foods that my mom would make.

We're going to miss you Thelma but thankfully you've left a beautiful legacy with your two fine young men and a caring husband.

Til we meet again in Heaven,

Cusi
