“ Alberta, Josh and Robert: So very sorry to hear this sad, sad news about Terry. I wish I knew the perfect words to say right now to make your pain go away, but I guess there are none really. I am so sorry you have to suffer this loss. During this oh-so-difficult time, I pray that God holds you all in the palm of his hand. I will be praying for you.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Aunt Alberta, Robert and Joshua and everyone else in our family. <http://storage.lifetributes.com/Candles/new/candle-9.png> To know him was to love him, he was truly an ANGEL on earth and truly an Angel now. Thank you uncle Terry for teaching me how to play basketball and loving it, and for helping me win at the science fair teaching me about solar energy, I tell everyone my uncle invented that. I thank you also Uncle Terry and Aunt Alberta for bringing us to the movies, parades and pizza hut as kids, you didn't have to do that, but you did, and we all appreciated that and still do. You were so awesome and funny and I'm truly happy that you met Aunt Alberta, you both made a life that everyone respected and looked up to. Aunt Alberta, Joshua and Robert my heart is broken for you. Uncle Terry will be so missed by so many. I love you all so much and if you need anything, I'm a phone call away. GOD be with our family..

“ Dear Alberta, Robert and Josh, It is with such deep emotion that I write this. I can not imagine the loss you are feeling. I feel the pain of Terry's death weigh upon me. Through these times we look to our family and friends to provide comfort and some sense of normalcy. Alberta if you or the boys need anything please contact me. Although separated by miles and time, Terry will always be in our hearts. His endearing quality to never find fault and to make the best out of any situation can be models to us all. I truly do miss him and you guys. I will always have a place for him in my heart, and a place for you and the boys should you ever need it or want it. Terry's brother, Ira.

He adored his family and all who knew him saw that! We will lift you all up in prayer and ask Jesus to hold you close in the coming times. “Dad, there's to many memories to actually share, from the endless nights of you telling me not to stay up all night, to me making you suffer through musicals four or five times in a row, and you stood up and clapped each night, to when we would aggravate momma so much over our obsession with the paranormal (by the way I'm expecting a visit or well a thousand (:) to when we built K'NEX roller coasters and when you'd bore me with science. You are the reason for my passion of concerts, music, and telling stories about said concerts, which basically became my life, thank you for that. The fact that we decorated more for Halloween than anyone in the world, only to make me happy, and all the times you dressed up at Halloween with me. From the times I forced you to go eat hibachi, and the countless times I aggravated you with my music way up loud, which is honestly your fault. I could go on for hours, but I won't. Just expect to me hear me scream the wrong words to the songs and I'll expect you to laugh, I'll just have to turn it up louder, luv ya dad.

Oh yeah and thanks for helping me with homework the nice way, no flip flop needed, right mom?

Your Dad was so very proud of you! And loved you so very much! Remember all of the good times oh hell who am I kidding they were all good times. And always remember to make good choices, enjoy music, most of all enjoy life and if he didn't teach us anything else (although he tried lol) he taught us to laugh and love like he did! You, your brother and I were his world and he will be by our side forever. Love you!
