

Theresa Juliette Duplessis Guedry

July 1, 1930 - June 28, 2018

Theresa Juliette Duplessis Guedry entered the gates of heaven with family at her side on June 28, 2018, at the age of 87, just three days shy of her 88th birthday. Beloved wife of 68 years, Roger A. Guedry, Jr. Loving mother of Roger J. Guedry, Sr., Beverly Andrews (husband, Greg) and Mary Ann Conzonere (husband, Randy). Loving grandmother to 9 grandchildren, 17 great grandchildren and 1 great-great grandchild, loving aunt to numerous nieces and nephews and loving sister-in-law. Daughter of the late Eunice Young Duplessis and Alcee Duplessis. Also preceded in death by 2 sisters and 4 brothers.

Theresa was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother, a devoted Catholic and a woman of great faith. She always had a prayer list and prayed daily for many others. She had a contagious smile that would brighten up the room and lift the spirits of others. Theresa loved to go play Bingo, especially when she won. She loved playing Solitaire with cards, until she learned how to play on a tablet. She loved to color pictures on her own and with her grandchildren.

Theresa loved going to their camp in Mississippi. One of her favorite pastimes there was fishing and teaching her grandchildren too. One of her grandchildren's favorite memories is while spending time with them at their camp was of her fixing them all morning cups of coffee milk along with breakfast. She was a wonderful cook! She worked for St Charles Parish Public school system as a cafeteria cook for 25 years.

My Heart is broken for family & friends, especially her loving husband 1 of the truest loves I have ever witness . A true expression of Love & kindness was always felt whenever I saw Mrs. Theresa or just seeing a photo she shined with a beautiful glow. I know she has left her family with her gift of Love, to share . May she rest in the arms of Jesus ❤️
