“ Dad, you are going to be missed by your daughters, son-in-laws and grandchildren so very much. You were not only a wonderful father, loving and kind, funny and protective but also a friend. The sun shown a little less brighter today without you with us. We love you. We know that our loss is heaven's gain.

“ My condolences to Cousin Tom's family. His father and my grandfather, Frank Alfano were brothers and my mother, Lily Mae Alfano Maniscalco loved her New Orleans cousins dearly (she passed away Jan 27, 2013). I enjoyed visiting with Tommy at the Golden Shears Barber Shop when we came in from Houston. If Tommy's daughters would like to be in touch, my email is Marilyn@ahenley.com I will have a Mass said for him. May God comfort you in your sorrow.

“ My Dad, Thomas Lawrence Alfano, Sr., and my Mom, Maxine Alfano asked that I express their condolences to Tommy's family. My Dad remembers last seeing Tommy about 40 years ago when Tommy purchased expensive watches and wanted to have the dials changed. Dad said he told Tommy that if he changed the dials, the watches would no longer be waterproof. Tommy changed his mind about having the dials changed at that time. Dad has a lot of fond memories from his childhood of Tommy's father, Uncle Tony. Dad said that he hopes he will meet Tommy in heaven some day, but not too soon. I want to express my sincere condolences too. Tommy will be missed by all of us.

“ The Schleh family has known "Willie" from birth, His parents Mr. Tony and Mrs. Josie were friends of our parents George and Karoline Schleh. Our father George Schleh, owned George's Barber Shop at 3211 Magazine, and was well acquainted with the Alfanos-- Joe and Tony, who once worked there. We have fond memories of Wilie and Lena Mae as children.

We were saddened to learn of his demise and wish to express our sympathy to the family.
