“ My sincerest condolences to the family. I first met Tommy when he interviewed me for a job in 2004 and I am glad our paths crossed. Our jobs often brought us together for projects the last ten years and he was always fun to talk to or meet for lunch. He had a genuine personality and always had a great attitude. It was amazing to see how he handled his last few years. What a strong, humble and brave man.

“ All those who knew Tommy know he was honest, respectful, generous, positive, kind, funny, I could go on, but most importantly he was genuine. We can all mimic those attributes at times, but Tommy was the real deal. Thank you for your friendship, your mentorship, and most of all for your example of a life well-lived, Tommy, I will miss you.

“ I worked with Tommy off and on for 20 years across the divisions and different companies. He was always eager to help or answer questions to work through difficult situations with a smile and humor. Earth is losing a great person but heaven is receiving a new angel. “ Tommy was a wonderful human being, I had the pleasure of working with him for close to 30 years. Tommy was so strong and positive in the worst of times, his attitude toward his illness was so inspiring, just amazing how he tried his best to not let others be affected by what was happening to him. I am going to miss my conversations with Tommy, man this guy fought so hard and loved his family. RIP my friend.

“ Tommy was fun to work with over the years, about 29 years. Always a smile and the infectious laugh. Plus, he knew what he was doing ... He was friendly, and professional, with our dealers even when they really did not deserve it.

Tommy called me when I was rehabbing after my accident. I knew he was having some health issues back then. When I asked how he was doing he did the old Tommy "aw shucks its going good." Then I started drilling him with questions. I knew after speaking with him his situation was much more serious than he was letting on. But typical Tommy, he was concerned about me.

Tommy never let adversity get the best of him. His positivity was always at the forefront of his being. We need more Tommy Leumas in the world, not less. YOU WILL BE MISSED.

I was a classmate of Tommy's older brother at Rummel, I doubt he would have remembered me. Tommy and I played soccer and were on a spring club team together. He used to keep us laughing all the time.

One day after practice, a bunch of us were in a car together heading home when we passed a grocery store and Tommy said to stop. There were about 4 to 5 of us in total. Tommy told us to each get a shopping cart, fill it with as much booze as we could fit in, and together we went to check out. He was in front and filled the conveyer belt with bottles and cases of beer. When it was our turn, the cashier asked Tommy for an ID. He said, "That's alright, we're all under age," and we left, leaving the cart where they were. We laughed like crazy when we got back to the car. It was juvenile, but that's what youth is for.

I lost touch with Tommy after graduating until I stumbled across his obituary this morning. Reading it made me feel like a kid again. I saw Tommy's grinning face in front of me like it was yesterday.
