

Tyler Marshall Porche

March 31, 1986 - June 17, 2022

On March 31, 1986, God blessed our family with the birth of Tyler Marshall Porche. It is with joy and sorrow to announce that on Friday, June 17, 2022, our Lord and Savior called upon this precious man to gift unto him everlasting glory of eternal life. Tyler passed away unexpectedly at the age of 36 in Mandeville, LA. He was born in New Orleans to the late William L. "Bill" Porche and Dori Marshall Porche. Tyler is survived by his loving mother, Dori M. Porche; sister Lindsey P. Lee; brother Cody M. Porche; four amazing children Gaige, Ollie, Jachin, and Boaz Porche; stepmother Margaret J. Porche; brother-in-law Ryan A. Lee and nephews Lucas and Bowen Lee.

As a youth and adolescent, Tyler was a member of Williams Boulevard Baptist Church and graduated from Grace King High School. He loved the Lord, his family, and spending time with his children. He excelled in both competitive baseball and skateboarding, even being featured in the newspaper for his incredible talents. Playing the guitar and songwriting were also hobbies of his and a favorite past time he shared with his brother. He was undeniably artistic and creative. As a true conversationalist and philosopher, he always welcomed and engaged in political conversation and debate.

Tyler was a beautiful human being. He was genuine and had a humble, gentle, kind, loving and subservient soul. He found beauty in everything and everyone. He was intelligent, humorous, goofy, and clever. Tyler's antics and magnetic energy attracted others, you just wanted to be around him to see what was coming next. He will be deeply missed but his love will live in our hearts forever as we continue to celebrate his eternal life in Heaven.

“ Tyler saved my life in so many ways, but more than anything. I'm so grateful he taught me how to skate. It's the only way I feel close to him now.
