

Vivian Dolores Sullins

January 11, 1934 - June 27, 2015

Vivian Dolores Sullins passed away on Saturday, June 27, 2015. She was born to Henry Romeo LaBonne and Imelda Bourque LaBonne on January 11, 1934 in Worcester, Massachusetts, and the family moved to East Douglas when she was young. She attended East Tennessee State University, where she studied Nursing, and joined the U.S.A.F. in 1952, at age 19. While serving in the Air Force, she met her late husband Harry Sullins. Traveling the world and visiting much of Europe, Germany was her favorite of all the places she had been to. She wore many hats in the service; "You name it and I did it", she would always say. She is survived by her two sons and adopted daughter, Phillip Henry Sullins (Debra), Michael Harry Sullins (Janice) and Susan Powell. She was a devoted grandmother to Heather Coutsos (Jim) and great grandmother to Dawson, Caden, and Tanner Grace Coutsos. She is also survived by her brother Henry William LaBonne (Alice) and brother in law Bruce Vacey. Ma, you will always have a special place in our hearts. God took you home to be with him, no more pain or suffering. He came for you and held you near and told you to have no fear. God is with you every step of the way, holding you in his arms this very day. We will never forget you, and you will truly be missed. You are a Soldier of HONOR.
