

Walter Levell Stallings

April 14, 1959 - April 26, 2024

Walter Levell Stallings was born on April 14, 1958, in Bellamy, AL. He graduated from Sumter County High School in 1976. Immediately following high school, he served in the U.S. Army for three years and was stationed in Fort Shafter in Hawaii, where he was a Food Service Specialist.

Upon being honorably discharged from the U.S. Army, he studied auto diesel mechanic at the West Alabama Skill Center at Livingston University. He helped open the first Houston's and Ruth Chris Steakhouse in New York City, and he also worked at T.G.I Friday's, The Harbor, and Gallaghers. While he enjoyed his time at each of these establishments, he truly loved working at the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival. His profession helped to foster a wealth of amazing friendships. His zest for life, love of family and friends, and education on "real" music are just a few reasons of many on why he will be immensely missed.

Walter is survived by his loving wife of 20 years, Ann Marie Stallings; his children Alvin Takeshita, Jennifer Stallings, Darryl Dees, Andre Stallings, Jonathan Stallings, and Isabella Stallings; his siblings Freddie Ross Sr, Virginia Hawkins, Berlinda S. Hood, Ophelia Stallings, Edwin Dunigan, Johnny Lawrence, Lucy Steele, Erica Smith, Vincent Lawrence, and Lois Eutten; 14 grandchildren, a great grandchild, and a host of nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Cornelius Fluker Jr and Juanita Ross Smith; his stepparents Preston Smith and Ida Fluker; a daughter, Anastasia Stallings; brothers Leon Stallings, Elmer Stallings Jr, Wayne Stallings, Warren

Stallings, and Walter Lee Fluker; and sisters Elizabeth Lightfoot and Sandra Fluker.
