“ *Dear Butch,
May your memory be a blessing to all those whom had the priviledge of knowing you. You will be missed greatly by many. Having your sister Christine in my life has been an incredible inspiration to me, watching her for all these years taking care of you and Erick. The compassion, love, and care she exhibits on a daily basis should be a learning lesson for everyone. I know I am a better person for this lesson. May you rest in peace, and always know, a hotel room is always available to your spirit, should you get tired of resting on the clouds.
Fondly,
