“THE” Dude ! He may be gone from this world but I promise you he will never be forgotten. I shared a patrol car with him a bunch of times. We even made the paper once. There are just too many stories both at work and off duty. Lacie, I would love to tell you some one day. Loved him like a big brother, he always made me laugh. What a character, larger than life itself.

“ Billy was a classmate of mine, Class#54, and we were sent from the Academy to the Second District together where we were assigned to Lt. Van Flynn's platoon. As rookies we seldom shared the same unit but one memorable night we participated in the capture of a rapist who has done his dirty deed to a Catholic, Irish visiting nun. He was a person one can depend upon to have your back, and in this incident he had mine. At the Academy we were close and I remember his enthusiasm and good nature. I have worked with many officers but few left a memory as Billy did. I only wished that our relationship had lasted longer and I had kept in touch more avidly. I will hold my memories of him for my remaining years and sad for his loss. Thom Blalock

A guy asked Billy for a rusty nail at brothers three. Billy gave him a scotch and water. The guy says this is not a rusty nail. The dude says now you're the freaking bartender. I cherished my friendship with Billy. He was always Billy.
