“ Willie, I am truly shocked and saddened to hear about your fathers passing.

He was certainly an amazing, kind & compassionate person. My father's business would not have been successful without your dad's support, encouragement & friendship. He was my daddy's best friend.... and a friend to rest of my family as well. I will truly miss him. Your so much like him & I know he was proud of you. I will continue to pray for all of you. I know how painful it is. With deepest sympathy, Monique Lefort-Nguyen

“ I remember so well when Miss Irene first started out selling shrimp down there in the empty lot. It seems like a journey so many of us was a part of, in watching ya'll expand, and being such an important part of the community. You and Irene were wonderful people, and are dearly missed. Your journey has taken you back to her, in that, we can take comfort, in knowing you're together again. RIP Mr. Willie

“ Chief was a quiet man, listened to what ever Ms. Irene told him to do and loved to just watch "Willie" grow into the man he is today. My heart hurts for you Willie; I know your memories of your wonderful mother and father will get you through this.
