January 7, 1941 - February 9, 2023

Zoraida Zeas Rizo entered into eternal rest on February 9, 2023. She was 82 years old. She was born on January 7, 1941 in Jinotega, Nicaragua and, after spending time in New Orleans in her youth, she moved here with her family in the early-1980s. She was preceded in death by her parents, Luis Zeas and Eva Chavarria, and her siblings Fanor, Elmer, Tirzo, Luz Marina, Alvaro, Jaime, Isabel, and Marta.

She is survived by her loving and devoted husband of 57 years, Fabian Rizo Ubeda, her beloved children, Rebeca Rizo Miranda (Ulysses), Mayelith Rizo, Martin Rizo (Kim) and her dear nephew, Edgardo Zeas. She is also survived by her grandchildren, who were her pride and joy, Ericka Miranda (Madeline), David Miranda, Claudia Gremillion (Phillip), Ingrid Rizo, and her great-grandson, Charlie Gremillion. She is also survived by her siblings Carlos, Amanda, Teresa, Blanca, Mireya, Esperanza, Mauramarta, Auxiladora, Ali, and Gustavo.

Zoraida, known as Yaya to her grandchildren and Zora to her friends, will be greatly missed by all that were fortunate to know her. She was known for her deep devotion to her Catholic faith, especially to La Purisima (The Blessed Virgin Mary). She was fiercely proud of her Nicaraguan heritage, which was best exemplified by her love of cooking for others, and was a dedicated New Orleans Saints and LSU Tigers fan, all of which she passed on to her children and grandchildren. She had a gift for becoming friends with all that she met and, over time, making those friends feel like family. She was a true friend to many and an unfaltering source of unconditional love for her family.
